

Regular Session, 2010

SENATE BILL NO. 649

BY SENATOR HEBERT

COURTS. Provides that when judicial district courts are divided, fund balances are distributed according to how much each parish contributes. (8/15/10)

AN ACT

To enact R.S. 13:478, relative to district courts; to provide for fund allocation for divided judicial districts; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 13:478 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§478. Fund allocation for divided judicial districts

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, when a judicial district is divided, the monies in any fund of the prior district shall be apportioned between the remaining district and the new district in proportion to the monies contributed from each parish into the fund in the calendar year prior to division.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Camille Sebastien Perry.

DIGEST

Proposed law provides that notwithstanding any present law provision of law to the contrary, when a judicial district is divided, the monies in any fund of the prior district shall be apportioned between the remaining district and the new district in proportion to the monies contributed from each parish into the fund in the calendar year prior to division.

Effective August 15, 2010.
